An Evening Post editorial indicates that but little care was taken in that direction toward myself by the compiler of the Republican text book, but let there be no rejoinder in kind or otherwise. 1 feel confident that you need no reminder, still my anxiety impels me to send this caution.'

THE republicans are welcome to what consolation they can get out of the Maine election. Complete returns show their plurality to be 27,130, which le a net democratic gain of 8,256. The republican vote was increased 15 per cent., the democratic over 40. The democratic gains are in the manufact uring centres, the republican locrease le mainly in the backwoods. The democrats gain seats in both branches of the Legislature. The result is more than gratifying to the democrate who get much more than they expected.
